The admission process until the publication of the article in the Iranian Journal of Food Science and Industry

1. Prepare and arrange the article according to the format announced on the magazine site.

2. Upload an article on the site: fsct.modares.ac.ir

3. Qualitative and thematic review of the article.

4. Reject the quality of the article and receive emails through the site.

5. Fix corrections and inform the expert via food86@gmail.com to change the status and re-upload the article.

6. Pay for printing the article and sending the payment receipt via food86@gmail.com.

7. Confirm the article and receive the arbitration payment email.

8. Pay the article judging fee and send the payment receipt to food86@gmail.com along with mentioning the article code.

9. Request for correction by the judges.

10. Upload a modified article on the site by the author.

11. Submit Article to Preliminary Refereeing.

12. Request for correction by the judges.

13. Upload a modified article on the site by the author.

14. Submit article to final referee.

15. Waiting to receive the editor's email.

16. Pay for printing the article and sending the payment receipt via food86@gmail.com.

17. Online article.

★ Please note that in the fastest possible case, the minimum time required from the time of submission of the article to the initial review to acceptance is one month.